Mourner's Kaddish

May God's great name be exalted and hallowed throughout the created world, as is God's wish. May God's sovereignty soon be established, in your lifetime and in your days, and in the days of all the house of Israel. And we say: Amen.

May God's great name be acknowledged forever and ever!

May the name of the Holy One be acknowledged and celebrated, lauded and worshipped, exalted and honored, extolled and acclaimed—though God, who is blessed, b'rikh hu, is truly beyond all acknowledgment and praise, or any expressions of gratitude or consolation ever spoken in the world. And we say: Amen.

May heaven bestow on us, and on all Israel, life and abundant and lasting peace. And we say: Amen.

May the one who creates peace on high bring peace to us and to all Israel [and to all who dwell on earth].
And we say: Amen.

Yitgadal v'yitkadash sh'meih raba, b'alma di v'ra, kiruteih, v'yamlakh malkhuteih b'hayekhon u-v'yomeikhon

Y'hei sh'meih raba m'varakh l'alam u-l'almei almay.

We are seated.

FOR THOSE WHO DIED IN DEFENSE OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL AND IN ACTS OF TERROR

Some congregations add the following:

יִזְכֹּר אֱלֹהִים אֶת־נַשְׁמוֹת כָּל־אֲחֵינוּ וְאֲחִיּוֹתֵינוּ בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל

May God remember the souls of all those of the house of Israel who sacrificed themselves to establish the State of Israel, or who have perished in its defense, and those slaughtered in acts of terror. In their memory we pray. May the memory of their bravery, their dedication, and their innocence be with us throughout time. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life; may they be remembered with honor and may they rest in peace at Your right hand forever. Amen.

Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace in Your sheltering presence, among the holy and the pure, whose radiance is like the heavens, to the souls of all those we have recalled today. May their memory be a blessing, and may they rest in paradise. Master of mercy, may they find eternal shelter beneath Your sheltering wings, and may their souls be bound up in the bond of life. ADONAI is their portion. May they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

IN MEMORY OF CONGREGANTS

May their souls be bound up in the bond of life; may they be remembered with honor and may they rest in peace at Your right hand forever. Amen.

Yizkor

WE RECALL

Some of us recall parents who gave us life, who cared for us and nurtured us and who taught us to take our first steps on our own.

Some of us remember a wife, husband, or partner—our friend and lover—with whom we shared so much of our lives, our failures and achievements, joys and sorrows, intimate secrets.

Some of us recall brothers and sisters, who matured together with us, sometimes competing with us, and sometimes encouraging us on, bound to us by a life-long relationship.

Some of us remember children, entrusted to us too briefly, to whom we gave our loving care and from whom we received a trust that enriched our lives. Their memory is always with us.

Many of us recall relatives who knew us, teachers who affected us, and beloved friends who walked beside us in life, guiding us, listening to us, supporting us.

Our lives are shaped by those who were alongside us as we walked on our path.

May our inheritance impel us to strive to live lives of holiness and service. May memories of love inspire us to love; may painful memories impel us to mitigate the pain others experience. And may we be granted the strength to affirm life's meaning, even in the face of death.

יהוה רעי, לא אחסר.

ADONAI is my shepherd; I shall not want.
Adonai ro-i lo ehsar.

God lays me down in green pastures, leads me to still waters,
Binot desheh yarbitzeini, al mei m'nuhot y'nahaleini.

נפשי ישׁוּבֵב, יִנְחֵנִי בְּמַעְגְּלֵי צֶדֶק לְמַעַן שְׁמוֹ.

renews my life, guides me in right paths—for that is God's way.

I fear no evil, for You are with me;

Only goodness and steadfast love shall pursue me
all the days of my life,
Akh tov va-hesed yird'funi kol y'mei hayai,

וְשָׁבְתִי בְּבֵית יְהוָה לְאָרְךָ יָמִים.

And I shall dwell in the house of ADONAI forever.

RABBI'S MESSAGE

Dear Holy Friends,

One of the many ways in which Jewish tradition encourages us to mourn and honor our loved ones is by participating in the Yizkor memorial service four times throughout the calendar year. I remember how difficult it was for me to recite Yizkor for the first time as a mourner. At first, I didn't want to be there. I couldn't believe that I was supposed to be there. But then I looked around the room. I realized that I was not alone in my mourning. For those thirty minutes the sanctuary was transformed into a community of mourners. Seeing an entire room full of people in mourning I realized that every person in that room, at one point, had stood in shoes similar to mine and could relate to the complicated nature of mourning and the depths of emotion that accompany losing someone. That shared experience of grief was a tremendous source of comfort for me, and it can be for all of us.

In the Yizkor service, we say "Yizkor Elohim Nishmat" and ask that God remember the soul of our loved one. In his Ohr Hadash translation of our siddur Reuben Hammer suggests that the phrasing is a bit awkward. He asks the question: what does it mean to ask God to remember our loved ones? According to Hammer, when we say Yizkor Elohim, we are asking God to remember our loved ones by fulfilling God's promise to them. We are asking God to help us, their loved ones, those of us reciting Yizkor, to cope with our pain, process our loss, and move forward with our lives. There is something truly meaningful, holy, and divine, perhaps even inspirational and uplifting about the Yizkor service. It can be a reminder that we are not alone, and that we are there for one another.

This year, one of the many ways that we will remember our loved ones is through our Book of Remembrance. This Book of Remembrance will be used each time we say the Yizkor memorial service as a community throughout the year. As the names of those no longer physically with us are shared throughout this year, I pray that their memory of them serve as a source of strength, comfort, and blessing.

I also am thankful and grateful that we have the opportunity to be there for one another in our times of need.

Bivracha ~ with blessings,

Rabbi Gary Oren

שְׁוִיָּתִי יְהוָה לְנִגְדִי תָמִיד,
כִּי מִיָּמִינִי בַּל אֲמוּט.
לִכֵּן שָׂמַח לִבִּי וַיִּגַּל קְבוּדִי,
אֲףִי בְּשָׂרֵי יִשְׁכֵּן לְבָטָח.

תהלים טו:ח-ט

ADONAI is always before me, at my right hand, lest I fall.
Therefore I am glad, made happy,
though I know that my flesh
will lie in the ground forever.

Psalm 16:8-9

A PERSONAL MEDITATION

Eternal God, Master of mercy, give me the gift of remembering.
May my memories of the dead be tender and true, undiminished by time; let me recall them, and love them, as they were.
Shelter me with the gift of tears.
Let me express my senses of loss—my sorrow, my pain,
as well as my love, and words unspoken.
Bless me with the gift of prayer.
May I face You with an open heart, with trusting faith,
unembarrassed and unashamed.
Strengthen me with the gift of hope.
May I always believe in the beauty of life, the power of goodness,
the right to joy.
May I surrender my being, and the soul of the dead,
to Your all-knowing compassion.
