Mourner's Kaddish

May God's great name be exalted and hallowed throughout the created world, as is God's wish. May God's sovereignty soon be established, in your lifetime and in your days, and in the days of all the House of Israel. And respond with: Amen.

May God's great name be acknowledged forever and ever!

May the name of the Holy One be acknowledged and celebrated, lauded and worshipped, exalted and honored, extolled and acclaimed—though God, who is blessed, b'rikh hu, is truly far beyond all acknowledgment and praise, or any expressions of gratitude or consolation ever spoken in the world. And respond with: Amen.

May abundant peace from heaven, and life, come to us and to all Israel. And respond with: Amen.

May the One who brings harmony on high, bring harmony to us and to all Israel [and to all who dwell on earth].
And respond with: Amen.

Mourners:

All Those Who Perished Since

October 7, 2023

FOR THOSE WHO DIED IN DEFENSE OF THE STATE OF ISRAEL AND IN ACTS OF TERROR

May God remember the souls of all those of the house of Israel who sacrificed themselves to establish the State of Israel, or who have perished in its defense, and those slaughtered in acts of terror. In their memory, we pray. May the memory of their bravery, their dedication, and their innocence be with us throughout time. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life; may they be remembered with honor and may they rest in peace at Your right hand forever.

IN MEMORY OF ALL THE DEAD:

Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace in Your sheltering presence, among the holy and the pure, whose radiance is like the heavens, to the souls of all those we have recalled today. May their memory be a blessing, and may they rest in paradise. Master of mercy, may they find eternal shelter beneath Your sheltering wings, and may their souls be bound up in the bond of life. ADONAI is their portion. May they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

אֵל מֶלֶא רַחֲמִים, שׁוֹכֵן בַּמְרוֹמִים, הַמַּצֵּא מְנוּחָה נְכוֹנָה
תַּחַת כַּנְּפֵי הַשְּׁכִינָה, בְּמַעְלוֹת קְדוּשִׁים וְטְהוּרִים, כְּזֹהֵר
הָרָקִיעַ מִזְהָרִים, לְנִשְׁמוֹת כָּל-אֵלֶּה שֶׁהִזְכַּרְנוּ הַיּוֹם לְבָרָכָה,
שֶׁהָלְכוּ לְעוֹלָמָם, בְּגֵן עֵדֶן תְּהִי מְנוּחָתָם. אָנָּה בֶּעַל
הַרַחֲמִים, הַסֹּתִירָם בְּסֶתֶר כַּנְּפֵיךָ לְעוֹלָמִים. וְצָרוּר בְּצָרוּר
הַחַיִּים אֶת-נִשְׁמוֹתֵיהֶם. יְהוּה הוּא נַחֲלָתָם. וַיְנַחֲחוּ בְשָׁלוֹם
עַל מִשְׁכְּבוֹתֵיהֶם. וְנֹאמַר אָמֵן.

IN MEMORY OF CONGREGANTS:

May God remember the souls of our friends, members of this holy congregation, who have gone to their eternal home. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life. May these moments of meditation strengthen the ties that link us to their memory. May they rest in peace forever in God's presence. Amen.

Exalted, compassionate God, comfort the bereaved families of this congregation. Help us to perpetuate everything that was worthy in the lives of those no longer with us, whom we remember this day. May their memory endure as a blessing. And let us say: Amen.

יִזְכּוֹר אֱלֹהִים נַשְׁמוֹת יְדִידֵינוּ חֲבֵרֵי הַקָּהָל הַקָּדוֹשׁ הַזֶּה
שֶׁהָלְכוּ לְעוֹלָמָם. אָנָּה תִּהְיֶינָה נַפְשׁוֹתֵיהֶם צְרוּרוֹת
בְּצִרוֹר הַחַיִּים וְתִהְיֶי מְנוּחָתָם כְּבוֹד, שְׂבַע שְׂמָחוֹת אֶת-פְּנֵיהָ, נְעִימוֹת בִּימֵינָה נֹצֵחַ. אָמֵן.

IN MEMORY OF THE SIX MILLION:

Exalted, compassionate God, grant perfect peace in Your sheltering presence, among the holy and the pure, whose radiance is like the heavens, to the souls of all the men, women, and children of the House of Israel who were slaughtered, strangled, and burned in the Shoah. May they rest in paradise. Master of mercy, may they find eternal shelter beneath Your sheltering wings, and may their souls be bound up in the bond of life. ADONAI is their portion. May they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

IN MEMORY OF THE SIX MILLION:

אֵל מֶלֶא רַחֲמִים, שׁוֹכֵן בְּמְרוֹמִים, הַמֵּצֵא מְנוּחָה נְכוֹנָה
תַּחַת כַּנְּפֵי הַשְּׁכִינָה, בְּמַעְלֹת קְדוּשִׁים וְטְהוּרִים, כְּזֹהֵר

IN MEMORY OF MARTYRS:

May God remember the souls of the martyrs of our people, who gave their lives for the sanctification of God's name. In their memory do I pledge tz'dakah. May their bravery, their dedication, and their purity be reflected in our lives. May their souls be bound up in the bond of life. May they rest in peace forever in God's presence. Amen.

WE RECALL

Some of us recall parents who watched over us, nursed us, guided us, and sacrificed for us.

Some of us lovingly call to mind a wife, husband, or partner with whom we were truly united—in our hopes and our pains, in our failures and our achievements, in our joys and our sorrows.

Some of us remember brothers and sisters, who grew up together with us, sharing in the play of childhood, in the youthful adventure of discovering life's possibilities, bound to us by a heritage of family tradition and by years of togetherness and love.

Some of us call to mind children, entrusted to us too briefly, to whom we gave our loving care and from whom we received a trust that enriched our lives.

So many of us recall beloved relatives and friends whose affection and devotion enhanced our lives, and whose visible presence will never return to cheer, encourage, or support us.

ADONAI is my shepherd, I shall not want.

God gives me repose in green meadows,
and guides me over calm waters.

God will revive my spirit and direct me on the right path—for that is God's way.

Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no harm, for You are at my side.

Your staff and Your rod comfort me.

You prepare a banquet for me in the presence of my foes:

You anoint my head with oil, my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and kindness shall be my portion all the days of my life,

And I shall dwell in the house of ADONAI in the fullness of time.

At the rising sun and at its going down; We remember them.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter; We remember them.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring; We remember them.

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer; We remember them.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of the autumn; We remember them.

At the beginning of the year and when it ends; We remember them.

As long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us as We remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength; We remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart; We remember them.

When we have decisions that are difficult to make; We remember them.

When we have joy we crave to share; We remember them.

When we have achievements that are based on theirs; We remember them.

For as long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us as, We remember them.

Dear Holy Friends,

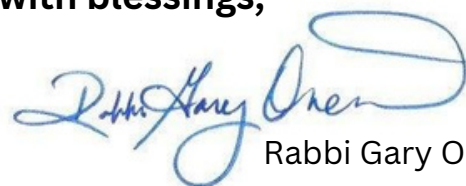

One of the many ways in which Jewish tradition encourages us to mourn and honor our loved ones is by participating in the Yizkor memorial service four times throughout the calendar year. I remember how difficult it was for me to recite Yizkor for the first time as a mourner. At first, I didn't want to be there. I couldn't believe that I was supposed to be there. But when I looked around the room, I realized that I was not alone in my mourning. For those thirty minutes the sanctuary was transformed into a community of mourners. Seeing an entire room full of people in mourning, I realized that every person in that room, at one point, had stood in shoes similar to mine and could relate to the complicated nature of mourning and the depths of emotion that accompany losing someone. That shared experience of grief was a tremendous source of comfort for me, and it can be for all of us.

In the Yizkor service, we say "Yizkor Elohim Nishmat" and ask that God remember the soul of our loved one. In his Ohr Hadash translation of our siddur, Reuben Hammer suggests that the phrasing is a bit awkward. He asks the question: what does it mean to ask God to remember our loved ones? According to Hammer, when we say Yizkor Elohim, we are asking God to remember our loved ones by fulfilling God's promise to them. We are asking God to remember our loved ones by fulfilling God's promise to them. We are asking God to help us, their loved ones, those of us reciting Yizkor, to cope with our pain, process our loss, and move forward with our lives. There is something truly meaningful, holy, and divine, perhaps even inspirational and uplifting about Yizkor service. It can be a reminder that we are not alone, and that we are there for one another.

This year, one of the many ways that we will remember our loved ones is through our Book of Remembrance. This Book of Remembrance will be used each time we say the Yizkor memorial service as a community throughout the year. As the names of those longer physically with us are shared throughout the year, I pray that their memory of them serve as a source of strength, comfort, and blessing.

I am also thankful and grateful that we have the opportunity to be there for one another in our times of need.

Bivrachá ~ with blessings,

Rabbi Gary Oren

A Personal Meditation

Eternal God, Master of mercy, give me the gift of remembering.

May my memories of the dead be tender and true, undiminished by time; let me recall them, and love them, as they were.

Shelter me with the gift of tears.

Let me express my senses of loss—my sorrow my pain, as well as my love, and words unspoken.

Bless me with the gift of prayer.

May I face You with an open heart, with trusting faith, unembarrassed and unashamed.

Strengthen me with the gift of hope.

May I always believe in the beauty of life, the power of goodness, the right to joy.

May I surrender my being, and the soul of the dead, to Your all-knowing compassion.
