COMMUNITY UPDATE

Dreaming Together: The Energy, the Gratitude, and the Road Ahead

There's something special unfolding at Congregation Shaarie Torah—and it's grounded in people showing up for one another with openness, honesty, and heart.

Over the course of 15 Shaari-ing Sessions, held in members' homes, our community has gathered in warm and welcoming spaces to schmooze, reflect, and dream together. More than a series of conversations, these evenings have become something deeper: a shared act of listening, imagining, and shaping what our next chapter can be.

The energy in these rooms has been unmistakable. Thoughtful, hopeful, and real. People have spoken candidly about what they cherish most about CST, what they hope to see grow, and how we might build a future that reflects both our values and our aspirations.

And for all of this, there is so much gratitude to express.

We offer our deepest thanks to Linda Nemer Singer and Mimi Berlin, whose vision, leadership, and steady dedication have guided this process from the very beginning. Alongside them, the Next 120 Committee has devoted over a year of thoughtful work—planning, organizing, listening, and refining—to help bring this moment to life. Their commitment to this community is both profound and inspiring.

We are equally grateful to the many members who opened their homes to host these gatherings. By creating spaces of warmth and welcome, you made it possible for meaningful and authentic conversations to unfold.

And to every person who participated in a session—thank you. Thank you for your honesty, your insights, your questions, and your willingness to engage. Your voices are shaping not only the direction of this process, but the future of our congregation.

As we move forward, our work continues with intention and care. Over the coming months, we will be carefully synthesizing what we've heard and beginning the next phase: turning our shared dreaming into action. This includes exploring possibilities for renovation and renewal of our building and campus, guided by the values, needs, and hopes that have emerged from these conversations.

This summer will be a time of focused effort and thoughtful planning—taking the richness of what has been shared and translating it into meaningful next steps. And when we return in the fall, after the High Holy Days, we look forward to coming back together as a community to share what we've learned, where we are headed, and what our future can hold.

What has been built so far is not just a set of ideas—it is a renewed sense of connection, possibility, and shared purpose. Together, we are not only honoring the legacy of those who came before us—we are actively shaping the next chapter of Congregation Shaarie Torah.

And that future is full of promise.

Renowned in the Portland Jazz scene for over two decades, the Shanghai Woolies are a wonderful mix of musicians including horns, vocals and soloists. Anyone who pines to hear Jazz the way it was once played in the early years will love what the Shanghai Woolies are doing. They evoke an era gone by in such a way as to make the music current. They are the cat's meow!

Song of Miriam Awards Brunch on June 14: This year at the Song of Miriam Brunch the Congregation Shaarie Torah Sisterhood will be honoring Pauline Goldstein. We are thrilled for her to join the 2026 list of honorees. Reach out to Shira (shira91@gmail.com) for more information and to connect with our group table.

Pauline Goldstein makes an extraordinary impact at CST and across our community, guided by a lifelong belief that when a need arises, you step forward. A graduate of OSU with a degree in Business Education, she brings a steady, “whatever needs to be done” spirit to every mission. In the late ‘70s, Pauline and her husband established an award-winning Portland chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation and committed many years volunteering with her children’s youth activities. Pauline prefers behind-the-scenes coordinating holiday events, projects, and leads the phone brigade for our annual Hamentaschen fundraiser. Through our Chesed Committee, Pauline makes birthday and wellness calls, offering warmth and support and on Shabbat mornings she greets our kehillah with a smile and a siddur. Over the years, she has also assisted Federation and Maimonides with varying needs both large and small. Wherever help is needed, Pauline raises her hand.

Shavuot

The Jewish Home Beautiful, written by Betty D. Greenberg and Althea O. Silverman, was recently donated to CST's Little Library. This book was copyrighted in 1941 by the National Women's League of the United States of America. We thought it would be fun to include this section on "Shabuot."

"The Jewish woman today, guided by memories and traditions of yesterday, must herself create new glory and beauty for the Jewish home of today... It lies within the power of every Jewish woman, with the expenditure of just a little effort, to transform whatever habitation she may occupy into a Jewish Home Beautiful." - Betty D. Greenberg
